ORDER:

Whereas, in the reference 3rd read above, certain article of charge have been issued on Sri S. Dharma Raju, former District Educational Officer, Srikakulam on the allegation that while functioning as D.E.O., Srikakulam, he has derelicted duty in not taking precautionary measures due to which the question paper bundles of the Half Yearly Examinations during December, 2004 were fallen down from lorry in Sompeta, Baruva and some other places.

2. And, whereas, Sri S. Dharma Raju, former District Educational Officer, Srikakulam in his representation in the reference 7th read above, has stated that he has received a telephonic call that some question paper bundles are fallen on the road and immediately he has issued instructions to the Deputy Educational Officer, Palakonda to enquire and submit his report and the Dy.E.O., who enquired in to the matter reported that the question paper bundles were accidentally fallen on the road between Sompeta and Baruva and there is no leakage of question papers as the bundles are intact. He has further stated that, he has immediately taken action against the Printer by discarding the agreement for his dereliction of his duties. He has finally submitted that since there is no leakage of question papers as the bundles are intact and as he has taken precautionary measures and it is not at all fault of district administration, he has requested the Government to drop further action against him in the matter.

3. Government after careful examination of the matter indetail, decide to drop further action against Sri S. Dharma Raju, former District Educational Officer, Srikakulam. Accordingly, further action against him, is, hereby dropped.

4. The Director of School Education, A.P., Hyderabad shall take necessary action accordingly.
